Faith in Action

Lord, if it's you," Peter replied, "tell me to come to you on the water."
"Come," he said. Matthew 14:28-29

Everyone loves the story of Jesus walking on water and Peter attempting to join Jesus by walking too. We all know what happens; Peter takes his eyes off Jesus and focusses on the wind and he begins to sink. Only the outstretched hand of Jesus saves him from being pulled into the deep. It is wrong for us to be critical of Peter for temporarily losing faith. It is right for us to admire the faith that trusted Jesus in the first place.

This story is great encouragement for all of us who find our faith wavering from time to time. Peter was right there with Jesus, he witnessed Jesus authority over nature and he knew that Jesus had chosen Peter to be one of his disciples with a task to complete. Despite Peter's great display of faith in getting out of the boat, his attention was drawn to the danger and chaos that immediately threatened him. Then we see the grace of Jesus in lifting him to safety.

We too get drawn away from Jesus by immediate threats or concerns. It's not that we don't believe that he is our God it's just that our faith is 'out of action' for a while. The great news is that Jesus understands and he will be with us even when we take our eyes off him. It is Jesus' action that allows us to refocus on him rather than the storms of life. Praise God for his mercy.
