A Glimpse Of Heaven

After this I looked, and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb....they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Revelation 7:9-14

There are many things that the apostle John shows to us in the book of Revelation. There is the prophetic account of the final victory of Jesus over the forces of evil and the triumph of God's people. There is also a window into heaven where we see God the Father and Jesus, the Lamb, along with the Holy Spirit worshipped by those who have been called home. The scene of billions of people connecting powerfully with God and knitted together by his Spirit lifts our own spirit.

Of course heaven is more than worship. We know from other parts of the bible that heaven is a place where we will spend time deepening our relationships with those we know and those we don't. We will have the opportunity to learn and grow without the limitations and decay that comes from sin. We will experience and give pure, perfect love. All of this flows from and returns to worship in heaven. For our journey here on earth, we too receive from God in worship so that our relationships and callings are led and inspired by his Spirit and we return to worship to offer ourselves and be refilled once again.

Praise God that we encounter him in worship.

Pastor Greg
