Prayer

*Before daybreak the next morning, Jesus got up and went out to an isolated place to pray.
Mark 1:35*

Over the years many people have told me that they would like to improve their prayer life. It seems that regular, heartfelt prayer is something that does not come naturally to us. We're all in for worship, serving and reading God's Word but prayer often is something that isn't as prevalent in our lives as we want. I believe prayer is a struggle because it is completely unlike anything else we do. Prayer is other-worldly and that's why it's so powerful.

In our reading today we see that Jesus is well into his mission of teaching, healing and confronting evil head on. We also note that Jesus makes time for prayer. He is well aware that he needs to be connected to his Father to have the strength to see his mission through. Prayer gives us an experience of spiritual connection and strengthens us for what God calls us to do. In fact, when we try to live out God's will in our lives in our own strength we find that we get tired and demotivated. Conversely, when we experience God's strength we are energised for his mission. It is through our prayer life that we make this connection to God's Spirit.

Martin Luther often said that he was too busy NOT to pray. When speaking with a friend about a particularly full day he said "I have so much to do that I shall spend the first three hours in prayer." Few of us would be able to spend three hours in prayer but the principle remains. Prayer is powerful, prayer connects us to God and prayer sustains us. May we thank God for the blessing we have in prayer.

GGLC Day Connect Group Resumes

Our first meeting will be on Thursday 11th February from 10am to 11:30am at the church in the church meeting room.

Our study will be based on Psalm 147, which you might like to read through before our gathering. We will begin with a cuppa and chat, followed by a study on God's word. We then conclude with a time of prayer.

Please let me or Rob in the church office know if you are attending on 08 7200 0090, as I will need to know numbers to help prepare according to Covid regulations.

If you are not well please do not attend.

Looking forward to our time together, as we delve into God's word and get to know each other a little more.

All Welcome
Rosalie Hoklas (Leader)
