God Does Not Discriminate

My brothers and sisters, believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ must not show favouritism. James 2:1

In theory everyone agrees that discrimination is bad. Nobody should be disadvantaged because they are in some way different to others. We have laws to prohibit discrimination which have been expanded as our society becomes more aware of latent discrimination. In practice, however, it is easy for us to categorise others, almost ranking people so that we know how to best relate to them.

God does not do that to his own creation. Every person is created in the image of God and therefore is both precious and worthy of respect. While we are born into sin, each human has the capacity to reflect something of God to the world and thereby bless others. James forcefully instructs believers to not favour one person or group over another because Jesus came to rescue all people; such was their value that he chose to die in their place.

When we find ourselves falling into the trap of discriminating against others it is good for us to have a little spiritual check-up. Often our discrimination comes from either ignorance or our own insecurity. If someone is different to me and I don't understand their culture and norms I will naturally think they are inferior to me. Australia's record toward indigenous nations shows just that. Similarly, if I am insecure and fearful, I can lash out and try to pull down that which is different and potentially dangerous.

Our God asks us to look to him for wisdom, courage and understanding. As we are filled with his Spirit, we will display the same love and acceptance that our Lord shows to us.

Latest Asaroka Update

Mr Pippn & Pastor Jacob printed the photos of both morning congregation and Salt factory group that were sent. They were displayed inside the staff room as well as the student's notice board outside the administration building and the Chapel notice board. Many both teaching and ancillary staff and students were excited to see the pictures and the quote from the book of Psalm 121. The community there are always praying for us here at Golden Grove.

The four in one classroom still remained unfinished due to lack of funding. They need 150 thousand Kena to complete. Looking into ways they can gain assistance.

Prayer requests:

1. We have a new principal and everything is running smoothly. Many things are not in order but slowly things are going back to normal under the new principal Mr. Jim Jujumo. Teachers are giving undivided support at this point in time so please help pray for us. The education department gazette for the positions next year came out in July so we are applying for the positions. Many time bribery involved especially in appointment for the top management positions so please help us pray so that they will retain the new principal on the ground continue next year.
2. The rice farm is on hold so please put them in prayer point so that it will continue. Many potential in the rice farming for Asaroka but due to mismanagement it is not progressing.
3. We have two more weeks before we go for term 3 break (a week). After returning from the break the Gr 10s and 12s will be sitting for the National Certificate Examination so please pray for us.
