27th July 2008— 11th Sunday of Pentecost

WELCOME to all worshipping with us today.

Greetings to any visitors here with us. We are pleased to have you join us and we trust you have felt welcomed and pray the Holy Spirit may enlighten and empower us with the message shared with us today.

Tea & coffee is available in the Fellowship Centre following morning service and at 5.45 pm a light tea is available prior to the evening service at 6.30 pm. Please feel welcome to join us.

TWO MINUTES

Romans 8:26-39

For some Christians, sometimes, the concept of the Holy Spirit seems quite beyond understanding and because of this, can seem a little frightening. I know I feel this way at times. In this week's reading from Romans, however, the Holy Spirit is spoken of in such a way that I felt only comfort and gratitude.

In these verses we are told that the Holy Spirit will help us in our weakness by praying on our behalf, in groans and without words being spoken. Just as we understand those close to us without words being spoken, God understands the groanings of the Holy Spirit and will know what it is we need.

Some of our Golden Grove Lutheran family are hurting at the moment and may well be beyond knowing what to pray for or they are hurting too much to pray at all. We might find ourselves in this situation one day. Hopefully they/we will be comforted knowing that not only are others praying for them/us but so too is the Holy Spirit; and God will hear, he will understand and he will answer.

Family Friendly Worship

At Golden Grove, we love everybody to be involved in worship.

Please encourage children and visitors to join in the singing and prayers, and to stand and sit at appropriate times when they are able. This is best done by leading by example!

For our 'little ones' - Quiet bags & busy books are available for worship time from the church foyer. Paper & pencils are available for children (and adults too if they would like to take notes of the message!!!)

It is not appropriate for unattended children to play in the foyer at any time during the service. Please ask an usher if you require assistance, or speak to a "Ministry Leader" if you would like to help young families during Worship times.

Thank you for worshipping with us!

Special thanks to Pastor Jim Prenzler for leading our worship service this morning and for sharing God's Word with us . We thank you for your time and service.

Also our thanks to Anna Watson for giving your support and the message at Salt Factory worship this evening.

FOR REFLECTION

(from SA Council of Churches)

Gospel

Jesus said, "The Kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field".

Mt 13:44

For reflection...

How...can we move from fragmentation to unity, from many things to the one necessary thing, from our divided lives to undivided lives in the Spirit? A hard struggle is required. It is the struggle to allow God's Spirit to work in us and recreate us. But this struggle is not beyond our strength. It calls for some very specific well-planned steps. It calls for a few moments a day in the presence of God when we can listen to God's voice precisely in the midst of our many concerns. It also calls for the persistent endeavour to be with others in a new way by seeing them not as people to whom we can cling in fear, but as fellow human beings with whom we can create a new space for God. These well-planned steps, these disciplines, are the concrete ways of 'setting your hearts upon the kingdom,' and they can slowly dismantle the power of our worries and thus lead us to unceasing prayer.

The beginning of the spiritual life is often difficult not only because the powers which cause us to worry are so strong but also because the presence of God's Spirit seems barely noticeable. If, however, we are faithful to our disciplines, a new hunger is the first sign of God's presence. When we remain attentive to this divine presence, we will be led always deeper into the kingdom.
