Before Worship

Together in Christ

Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven that will never fail, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Luke 12:33-34

As fallen humans we have always messed up our priorities in life. We so easily buy into the lie that our worth, happiness and security is found in material possessions and wealth. In our efforts to accumulate wealth we often neglect the things that God sees as eternally important, i.e. relationship with him and with others. This is one of the reasons that Jesus speaks so directly against trusting in money. Deep down we know that Jesus is right. In the GFC, billions of dollars was wiped out in a few days. In Venezuela, immense national wealth has been squandered and the people struggle to survive economically. There is a better way!

God tells us that our main focus is on our relationship with him, receiving his blessing and passing that blessing onto others. He also tells us that investing in relationships is far more profitable than investing in things.

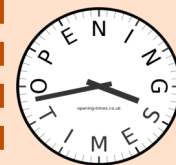

Next week, a team from Golden Grove Lutheran community will travel to PNG to build relationships with our brothers and sisters in Christ and to give and receive blessing. Our school has raised money and made birthing kits to support those who do not have the access to quality medical care that we have. For many years our partnership with Asaroka in PNG has been about focussing on the things that will outlast our plans and our buildings. We pray for God's leading as the team seeks his will for this partnership.

A Message From Paul Voigt (Youth Worker)

Gday,

As some of you may have heard at the end of this year I will be finishing up as youth worker at Golden Grove Lutheran church. This has come from lots of prayer and I know this is the right move for my family and I, believing also it's the right time for someone else to take on the position as youth worker. I pray for the next person that they can make the role their own and can take the youth ministry to the next level.

Thank you for giving me a chance to lead the youth I have loved every moment of it and learnt so much along the way. I am sad to leave. But I know God has big plans for both myself and the youth program. This church community has been very supportive of me and I will be forever grateful for all that I have gained and given during my time with Golden Grove Lutheran Church.

Looking forward to finishing the year well.

God Bless,

Paul Voigt

What a wonderful and special night Salt Factory enjoyed thanks to our special guest Aunty Betty. For someone, who early in her life was rejected and traumatized over and over again, can still be so loving, so forgiving and so strong in her faith, is totally inspirational! If you missed her touching testimony or would like to see it again, a video can be found on GGLC YouTube page at:

Friends of Lutheran Archives (FoLA)

Lutherans are not alone in remembering the 'Great War' of 100 years ago as a time of suspicion and prejudice. In her talk "German and Irish South Australians in World War One," historian Dr Stephanie James explores the parallels and differences between the German and Irish communities in SA in their experiences of the War. Come along to the next Friends of Lutheran Archives, meeting on Monday 19th August, 7.30 pm at Bethlehem House, Sudholz Place in the city. Supper & gold coin donation. All welcome.
