Before worship

People everywhere seek ways to God and spiritual enlightenment. The Jews tried to obey a prescribed number of laws to achieve the perfection they needed to reach God. Some people think that as long as they are actively being justice and doing good they deserve the heavenly reward of God's pleasure. Others try to achieve spiritual experience through knowledge and involvement in every new idea that comes their way. These are all exhausting and soul destroying ways because none can be successful.

In today's reading from Romans we discover that we don't have to rely on our own efforts to reach God. It is not actually up to us at all. Jesus is the one who does everything needed. For, "Christ has brought us into this place of undeserved privilege that we now stand". Pure grace. Jesus is God's loving solution to all our inadequacies, all our sins and failings, all our human incapability's. It is God's love that surrounds us, upholds us, and declares who we really are as beloved children of God and that reality becomes the hope of salvation that does not disappoint us. God's faithfulness allows us to stand with confidence and joy through the Holy Spirit.

The peace and hope that we experience becomes a witness to others and God's way of showing them what He has in mind for them too. Our part becomes just to relax and enjoy the journey. To trust the grace given. To use the freedom we now have to love and obey God.

Lord God we thank You for the indescribable gift You have given us in the salvation of Christ. Work through us that Your love and joy will shine Your glory to all we meet. In Jesus Name, Amen.
