Before worship

Being a member of a Church can be an exciting and very satisfying experience. There is relationship with each other that is obvious but it is our relationship to Christ and to each other through Christ that makes all things possible.

In our diverse world sometimes there are issues that divide even Christians and we thank God that He chose to make us all individuals. Psalm 133v1 challenges us with the words, “How good and pleasant it is when God’s people live together in unity.” Jesus died so that the unity He shared with the Father could be our experience as well. Thus we respect other viewpoints and we especially seek to see through God’s eyes, to yearn for and ask for His wisdom. That is where our unity springs from.

Amos has a question for us in today’s reading that really stood out for me. He asks, “Can two people walk together without agreeing on a direction?” I thought that was a very powerful question. It seems like a tall order when we all have different opinions and agendas. But if we share God’s agenda then we will all be going together in the same direction and it will be the best direction because His agenda is love!

I Peter 4 v 11 calls it, “Deep love” that is given, to “Bring glory to God through Jesus Christ.” When we consider the new missions and possibilities for our congregation it is not hard to see that the motive has indeed been one of love.

Dear Lord, we are entering exciting times in the life of our Congregation. May every plan, dream and endeavour we undertake bring glory to You through the love given us in Jesus Christ and in the strength and energy He supplies, Amen.

Staffing 2018: There are a few changes on staff next year with Mel Arnold on maternity leave, Carly Bergen accepting a position at St Paul Blair Athol (as part of their leadership team) and Graham Maddren accepting a position at Tyndale to head up a new special needs unit (an area in which he is quite passionate). These vacancies have now been filled. We have been blessed to be able to have the following teachers accept positions at GGLPS. I am excited about the skill sets which they will bring to the school and look forward to welcoming them to our community.
