Before worship

A Foretaste of the things to come...

And we believers also groan, even though we have the Holy Spirit within us as a foretaste of future glory... We, too, wait with eager hope for the day... (Romans 8:23)

Around this time last year we were about to engage in the call process, with Pastor Leon preparing to move to the Saddleworth/Carlsruhe parish, and I think many in the congregation were not looking forward to a repeat of the vacancy prior to Pastor Leon arriving (approx. 2 yrs).

We were then advised Pastor Dennis Obst would be stepping in 'a few days each week' and on Sundays to help out, and what a blessing he has been to GGLC – you might say he's been a breath of fresh air in a tired room. He has provoked thought, challenged and inspired many through his delivery of God's Word to us, and in conversation has come to know us (and we – him), for better AND worse.

And now this time is at an end, and we say farewell to Pastor Dennis and Sandra – it has been a pleasure having you with us, and providing a foretaste to the next stage of the life of Golden Grove Lutheran Church, as we prepare for the installation of Pastor Greg Fowler (and Connie) next Sunday. May you continue to live and speak God's Life and Love to the world through your ministry.
