Changed by God's Love

Many years ago when I was still a teenager, Cyndi Lauper had a song titled 'money changes everything'. It was typical of 1980s music; the lyrics were cynical and the substance of the song was a bit depressing but the tune was boppy and upbeat. In essence the song stated that nothing matters except money. Money will undermine even the most beautiful things and will change us all to be selfish and hurtful. In some ways this song was a reflection on human nature; everyone out for themselves.

God enters this cynical, selfish world with his sacrificial love. It is foreign to us. It is His grace. God's love and grace are radical and counter-cultural. We always look for the catch because it seems too good to be true. Finally, when we realise that there is no catch, that God's love is given freely with no strings, we are changed. Experiencing the love of God for ourselves makes us confident and optimistic because we have God's constant, unfailing commitment through his promises. We also have His Holy Spirit, through whom we are shaped and empowered.

God's love changes everything!

Pastor Greg
