Devotion

Truth. Don't we all want to know what that is? Election time is here again and it would be great to be able to sort out the truth from all the conflicting statements! Our consumer society bombards us with their version of the truth about almost everything. We struggle ourselves to always be truthful and it is dangerous to believe we can determine the truth on our own for we are all fallible.

Today's scripture lessons testify to what is and has been truth since the beginning of time - that truth embodied in the Triune God. He is the same yesterday, today and forever. Proverbs shows us how God was intimately involved and loving in the act of creation. The Epistle, written hundreds of years later speaks about how that love became a tangible reality when Jesus stepped into humanity and lovingly took our punishment for sin, restoring us to perfection. The Gospel reveals Jesus' love in sending the Holy Spirit to bring truth to us as individuals so we might personally be led to know the love, peace and salvation of God.

The truth of life and death in God's saving presence is far superior to any 'truth' the world may reveal. It's like comparing God whom Moses went up the mountain to talk to, with the golden calf that Aaron made. We so need the Holy Spirit to lead us to God in all His glorious truth so we are not hoodwinked by the golden calf.

We pray, Thank You so much Lord for uncovering the truth of Your salvation for us. Please help us value and depend on the Holy Spirit as He guides us into all truth. In Jesus Name, Amen.
