1st March 2015—2nd Sunday in Lent

WELCOME to all worshipping with us today.

Greetings to any visitors here with us. We are pleased to have you join us and we trust you have felt welcomed and pray the Holy Spirit may enlighten and empower us with the message shared with us today.

*Tea & coffee is available in the Fellowship Centre following morning service and at 5.45 pm a light meal is available prior to the 6.30 pm service
Please feel welcome to join us.*

Before worship

What would we have said . . . would we be like Peter?

The One all Israel has waited for throughout its long and difficult history is here, talking about being captured and killed. What the? . . ! Peter can't see this as a good thing! He can't allow the promised Messiah to be treated like this! He did not understand the real implications of these events. He had the audacity to rebuke Jesus.

But Jesus knew what He was about. He was faithful to the end. He knew who He was and who His Father was and what needed to be done. He also knew the eternal plight of the millions of people throughout history. He saw the bigger picture. Jesus, without weakening in His faith amidst all the hurtful reality of life, did not waver in unbelief. Even when His heart was breaking in the Garden of Gethsemane, He trusted and said "Not my will but yours oh God". With the love of the Father burning in His heart He fulfilled God's will so that those millions – including you and I, could live eternally.

Peter was caught up with human concerns and could not see the mysteries of God. How about us? Can we be faithful like Abraham and believe against all hope? Can we face life's uncertainties, its misfortunes, even its tragic circumstances and still trust God that His purpose is being fulfilled and everything that happens is for the good of the people He loves?

When I trust my own understanding I have to answer no! Earthly logic is too strong and despair rules. Like Peter, human concerns block me from seeing the concerns of God. But when I look at Jesus and His life, death and resurrection the Holy Spirit helps me be faithful and believe against all earthly hope. Jesus died for me. There is victory over all life's ugliness, sickness, sin and death through Him alone.

All praise and glory and blessing to You O Lord. Holy Spirit please increase our faith in Jesus our Saviour and make it endure to the end. Amen

Family Friendly Worship

At Golden Grove, we love everybody to be involved in worship.

Please encourage children and visitors to join in the singing and prayers, and to stand and sit at appropriate times when they are able. This is best done by leading by example!

For our 'little ones' - Quiet bags & busy books are available for worship time from the children's area inside the church.

The "Kids at Heart" team run a special time for children in the foyer area during the sermon. That way, the children have some time with their parents during the morning services, and also a little bit of time to learn about our God and what He means to us through artistic activities with their friends. All children are welcome to join in this time. It is not appropriate for unattended children to play in the foyer at any time during the service. Please ask an usher if you require assistance, or speak to a "Ministry Leader" if you would like to help young families during worship times.

Thank you for worshipping with us!

Pastor's Column

Today for some of you this is my last Sunday with you as your pastor. Next Sunday (8th March) is actually my final services here- 9.30am and 6.30pm Salt Factory, with a farewell lunch after the morning service. However many of us only worship every fortnight and next weekend is a long weekend!

So to those people for whom this is my last service as your pastor, I bid you "Goodbye and thank you for having me." I have very much appreciated ministry with you and for you....

But more of that next week as well as in my article in "The Life in the Vine" and my AGM report. (inserted)

Today our theme for worship is Heal me. God has involved the Church in his healing ministry ¹⁴ Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray...And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well... (James 5:14-15). And the Scripture shows how Jesus heals in a variety of ways.

But what is the best way to heal?

I shall present to you this morning three things about healing the best way: God wants healing of the whole person- and a deep healing at that. He will heal at the right time. It could be instant, gradual or the ultimate healing (and it's the ultimate healing that God is most interested in.) God wants us (His Church) involved in that healing for it is an opportunity for us to grow in faith, love and hope.

Paul Napier is speaking at the Salt Factory service camp fire tonight.

Next week, the theme is Forgive me.

If you are wondering about the lamp on the altar, it is a Taybeh Peace Lamp which I presented to the congregation last Sunday. It is a call for people to pray for peace in the holy land.

The hope behind this is to place a Peace Lamp in every single church in the world and to unite as many Christians and people of faith in a common prayer for peace in the Holy Land. This is supported by SA council of Churches of which I am a Lutheran rep.
