9th March 2014—First Sunday in Lent

WELCOME to all worshipping with us today

Greetings to any visitors here with us. We are pleased to have you join us and we trust you have felt welcomed and pray the Holy Spirit may enlighten and empower us with the message shared with us today.

Tea & coffee is available in the Fellowship Centre following morning service

Please feel welcome to join us.

Before Worship...

Last Wednesday we had the 'smell of ash' as we began the season of Lent.

Today we have the 'smell of perfume,' yet this too signifies the beginning of something.

Jesus declares that the woman had anointed Him ready for His death and burial, the events we remember especially through Lent to Good Friday.

Lent and Easter are so full of contrasting elements and so this contrast in smell is a good illustration of the extremes that are played out in the redemption story. Ashes to perfume. The great exchange as we sing about . . .

'He gave me beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, that we might be trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord that He might be glorified.'

Our Epistle reading brings out the same contrast - sin that must be paid for by death – the constant smell of burning sacrifices in the Old Testament had their own peculiar smell that reminded of the stench of sin – contrasted with the beautiful Grace of God and the gift of the Grace of God that abounds for all. For those who receive the abundance of His Grace and His gift of righteousness have Life – abundant Life through Jesus.

The perfume poured on Jesus is now poured on us. The great exchange has taken place and we have His life through our baptism into His death. That smells so sweet to me!

Lord God, Thank you for saving us from the hell of our sin and the punishment of death. We praise You for You didn't just take it away or minimise its effect - You exchanged it for Life, Your life, beautiful Eternal Life with You. Help us live Your Life in the here and now. In Jesus Name, Amen

Family Friendly Worship

At Golden Grove, we love everybody to be involved in worship.

Please encourage children and visitors to join in the singing and prayers, and to stand and sit at appropriate times when they are able. This is best done by leading by example!

For our 'little ones' - Quiet bags & busy books are available for worship time from the children's area inside the church.

The "Kids at Heart" team run a QUIET craft table during the sermon. That way, the children have some time with their parents during the morning services, and also a little bit of time to be creative, to wriggle around and to learn about our God and what He means to us through artistic activities, with their friends. All children are welcome to join in this time. It is not appropriate for unattended children to play in the foyer at any time during the service. Please ask an usher if you require assistance, or speak to a "Ministry Leader" if you would like to help young families during worship times.

Thank you for worshipping with us!

Pastor's Column

Smell is a pretty powerful sense. It can bring to mind events in the past and help us to recall what we are doing at the moment, sometime in the future. This is helped if the smell is especially distinct.

This Lent we are using our sense of smell to help us to get into the passion story. The theme for our season of Lent this year is "The smell of Lent". Last Wednesday we used the smell of ash to help us to take our repentance to heart, today we are putting ourselves into the story of Jesus being anointed for his burial (Matthew 26:6-13) as we consider the smell of perfume. (Over the next following weeks we shall use the smell of wine, olives, books, rope, wood in that order.)

What comes to mind when you smell perfume? (Yes it depends on the perfume, but perfume in general?) Would it be someone of the female gender, flowers and when we have seen those flowers or could it be a waste (as the disciples who were present in the story thought), perhaps: preparation, care and even love. We'll consider that in the address this morning.

This evening at Salt Factory we are having a camp fire service where the theme we'll use is the "smell of ash."

How are you going to be involved in our Fishing Fete -in 3 week's time? Are you going to book a stall? Are you going to support those who have taken the initiative to book in - for example the youth are running a BBQ, the ministry team are thinking about giving out balloons and pamphlets/ tract, support the book stall or the tea & coffee stall, or our Asaroka charter raffle fundraiser...You could run a drink stall if you like. We are keeping the morning service to the hour so that we can help the GGAF crew set up for the Fete- perhaps you could help out there too. Get involved. It's our (congregation's) Fishing Fete.

ON THE DAY

Asaroka Fundraiser - Charter

Raffle

I have secured support for another Charter Raffle as a fundraiser for Asaroka, as part of the Fishing Fete. This year the Prize will be "Charter for 2 People – 9 hour, Offshore" Tickets will be $2. Prize Value is $500. I am asking for help for people to sell a book of 10 tickets before the day. Tickets will be available at the front office as well as from me and on the day. Can I also have some help on the day of the Fishing Fete to man the ticket selling table, even if only for a while.

Thanks, Daniel Dutschke. 0437896892

Can you Help?

As part of the Fishing Fete, the Tea & Coffee Stall would like donations of biscuits, muffins, large cakes and slices to sell on the day.

Around 1000 people have attended previously, so it would be fantastic to have a generous supply of food available.

Could items please be packaged and labelled with a list of ingredients.

Any queries or offers of help on the day to Leanne Schiller please Youth News!

He gave Himself as an offering for sin so that He'd see life come from it - life, life and more life - Isaiah 53:10b.

Another week, another Revival! ☺ This Friday night (March 14) from 7pm until 10pm, we'll be having a guys and girls night. So guys will be doing manly stuff, and girls, well, you'll be doing stuff I don't even want to know about! There will be pizza this week, as well as some awesome discussion and perhaps some card games. We'll be delving into the story of Joseph during our devotion also. Normal details (like $4, Childsafe, you know the drill). Looking forward to seeing you there!

A great night last week as we slid around the IceArena and showed off some of our skills! I can tell you that we all managed to skate a bit on the big scary ice ring, even me (aka. Jason!) We talked about Abraham and God's promise to him and how those promises are still true for us today. Please pray for our older youth ministry: for direction and passion.

GGLF Working Bee

Saturday 3rd May 8:30am to 3:00 pm

We'll be carrying out a variety of jobs around the school and church facilities, including general tidy-up (inside and out), painting, repairs to chairs, and other miscellaneous jobs.

As well as improving our facilities, working bees are a time of fellowship and an opportunity to become better acquainted with others in our community.

If you have any queries, or are aware of any specific jobs that you feel should be done, please contact Simon Ahrens (0421 910 604).

Morning tea and lunch will be provided.

School Courtyard Shade Project

The school is currently running a fundraising project to build a shade structure across the courtyard. Any assistance you can offer will certainly help out. Even a dollar or two will help. Please help out by donating through the school website. <http://bit.ly/ggflf2ggflps>

Our Deepest Sympathy

We are saddened to share the loss of our sister in Christ Leanne Amos who went to the arms of Jesus in the early hours last Friday morning 7th March.

Our loving thoughts and prayers are extended to Barbara Robertson (Lee's mum) and to Lee's husband David and three sons Joel, Reid & Cale.

We uphold you in prayer and pray God may be your strength and comfort in your time of pain and loss.

GGLF Women's Fellowship

Next meeting will be this Wednesday 12th March at 1.00 pm in the lounge area of our Fellowship Centre.

All ladies welcome.

Container Update from PNG

Great News! We have received notification from Asaroka that the container has finally been delivered to the school on the 2nd

March. It took them a while to get the Truck Freighting finances together but it has now happened. They will now have a job ahead of them to unload it and get everything in place where it needs to go. They are very excited, and also very thankful to everyone here that helped it to happen.

Thanks to all for your prayers of safe travel for the container.
