16th March 2014—Second Sunday in Lent

WELCOME to all worshipping with us today

Greetings to any visitors here with us. We are pleased to have you join us and we trust you have felt welcomed and pray the Holy Spirit may enlighten and empower us with the message shared with us today.

Tea & coffee is available in the Fellowship Centre following morning service

Please feel welcome to join us.

Before worship...

On the seventh day—with the canvas of the cosmos completed—God paused from His labour and rested. Thus God blessed day seven and made it special—an open time for pause and restoration... because God rested from all the work He had done in creation that day – Genesis 2:2-3 (Voice).

Rest! Can't you see that you're swamped, overworked and nearly at breaking point? I don't keep a regular Sabbath: a day set aside for restoration in God's love. But I definitely need to. As Max Lucado puts it: "we need one day in which work comes to a screeching halt. We need to stop".

Rest assured that God's work doesn't stop: it continues. Romans 4:5 (Voice) says: "for the person who does not work, but instead trusts in the One who makes the ungodly right, his faith is counted for him as righteousness". Have faith that God will always take care of things. Trust in that! Remember that Jesus came to "rescue a world headed toward certain destruction" (John 3:17b, Voice). Jesus knows what He's doing. God know what He's doing. So rest! Take this advice and rest.

Psalm 39:6 it says: "Man is a mere phantom as he goes to and fro: He bustles about, but only in vain; he heaps up wealth, not knowing who will get it". If we keep on working and don't rest, we get lost ourselves and lose our impact on others. Continuing on from Lucado's point: "Are you so seldom in one place that your friends regard you as a phantom? Are you so constantly on the move that your family is beginning to question your existence? Do you take pride in your frenzy at the expense of your faith? May you take a day to say no to work and yes to worship".

Prayer: Dad, thank you for the work that you have set out for us. Help us to slow down. You modelled rest to us, so let that be our example. Bless us Lord, and give us peace. Amen.

Family Friendly Worship

At Golden Grove, we love everybody to be involved in worship.

Please encourage children and visitors to join in the singing and prayers, and to stand and sit at appropriate times when they are able. This is best done by leading by example!

For our 'little ones' - Quiet bags & busy books are available for worship time from the children's area inside the church.

The "Kids at Heart" team run a QUIET craft table during the sermon. That way, the children have some time with their parents during the morning services, and also a little bit of time to be creative, to wriggle around and to learn about our God and what He means to us through artistic activities, with their friends. All children are welcome to join in this time. It is not appropriate for unattended children to play in the foyer at any time during the service. Please ask an usher if you require assistance, or speak to a "Ministry Leader" if you would like to help young families during worship times.

Thank you for worshipping with us!

Pastor's Column

The smell of wine.

My earliest recollection of wine was on my parents' breath after Holy Communion.

In preparing the address for today I asked myself, how did I feel about that?

It seemed to be they were somewhat subdued after receiving Holy Communion- as if they had been in God's presence and experienced The Holy- which of course they had- and so they themselves were holy- that's what God's holiness does.

To me it was a strange, sweet smell on their breath- perhaps something even warm and therefore comforting.

I felt they were special to receive Holy Communion and of course I looked forward to receiving Holy Communion one day myself. (I know that for some of you, alcohol on your parents' breathe meant you had to be careful with them or you couldn't take them seriously – they were intoxicated- but that has nothing to do with the wine of Holy Communion.)

This morning we are going to take up this theme of "The smell of wine" to have a closer look at Matthew 26:17-19 where Jesus celebrated the Passover with his disciples, the last Supper and where he instituted Holy Communion. The thoughts of Remembrance, Comfort and Hope come through this event like the strong smell of good wine.

This evening at Salt Factory the theme too is the smell of wine. Jesse Hahn will be giving his take on it.

Have you been using our weekly devotions "When God Almighty came to be one of them- a diabolical viewpoint"? These are available to download from our website during. (Go to the home page and in the "For members" folder.)

Next Sunday the theme in our Lenten program is "The smell of olives."

How are you going to be involved in our Fishing Fete - in only TWO WEEK'S TIME? What can you do? Run a stall? Support the book stall the tea and coffee stall, the youth BBQ, by helping to give out balloons and pamphlets/ tract, the Asaroka charter raffle fundraiser? You could run a drink stall if you like. We are keeping the morning service to the hour so that we can help the GGAF crew set up for the Fete- perhaps you could help out there too. Get involved. It's our (congregation's) Fishing Fete.

Have you thought about supporting our District Synod (see elsewhere in this week's bulletin)

Youth News!

Ephesians 5:8 - "For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light".

An exciting week coming up as we immerse ourselves into another culture on our Korean night. You may or may not know that there is a Korean church service at Golden Grove. This Friday, March 21 from 7pm until 9:30pm, we'll be learning more about that as well as cooking up a storm with some yummy Asian delicacies. Of course there'll be the normal crazy fun and games in between: with a twist! Our devotion spotlight this week goes onto Moses and The Ten Commandments. Normal details, $4 and Childsafe! J We'll see you then.

Another brilliant night at Awakening as our youth competed in The Amazing Race! There were numerous challenges (trying not to be run over by CCs kids the first J) for each team to complete, including a morse code breaker and Flappy Bird test. The discussion then turned to the story of Joseph, before we watched stereotypical guy and girl movie clips and laughed at the reaction of the opposite gender. Please continue to pray for these guys and their faith development!

Container Update from PNG

Great News! We have received notification from Asaroka that the container has finally been delivered to the school on the 2nd March. It took them a while to get the Truck Freighting finances together but it has now happened. They will now have a job ahead of them to unload it and get everything in place where it needs to go. They are very excited, and also very thankful to everyone here that helped it to happen. Thanks to all for your prayers of safe travel for the container.

Friends of Lutheran Archives (FoLA)

For Australian Lutherans of German descent, what did/does it mean to 'be German'? What did this 'Germanness' consist of ('Deutschtum')? What about in the church context? How did the Lutheran Church in Australia come to terms with its German heritage? What consequences did/does this have on the development of a 'German' church in the Australian context? Come along to the next FoLA meeting on Monday 24th March, Bethlehem House, Sudholz Place, City, & listen as Brian van Wageningen speaks on this fascinating topic. Supper. Gold coin donation.
