Before Worship ....

"Am I my brother's keeper?"

The nerve in Cain's outburst against God is staggering. Yet our nerve is equally staggering, and don't we know it when we slow down to think about it. In seeking to justify ourselves, we ask: What festering disagreement with my fellow member? What selfish act against my God-given spouse, children, parents or friends? What little bit of jealousy over my colleagues' success? What arrogance in my attitude to my Pastor? Am I my brother's keeper?

Thankfully Christ didn't ask his Father the same thing in the Garden. He knew he was our keeper. He knew that in keeping his Father's will he would keep us because we can't keep ourselves. But he also knew it would cost him his blood. But whereas Abel's blood cried out to the Lord for vengeance, Christ's blood cried out for the Father's mercy upon us.

And so to today's Epistle. Because Christ has claimed us and lives hidden in us (Col 3:3), living in us also is his rule over the sin. In this regard the following promise is beyond comprehension: 'When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory' (Col 3:4). Christ appears when you ask in prayer, hear his word, remember your baptism and feast on him at the Lord's table. At these times you are transported into his glory, transformed into a holy and forgiven child of God, free from fear to fear God more than humans, and therefore acknowledge: "I am my brother's keeper. Let me make it right."

Most holy and merciful God, Glory be to you as you appear to us in your word in worship today and transport us into your glory. Bless all who worship you here and in your holy Christian churches across your earth this day. Renew us in the knowledge of the image of your Son through whom we are freed to make things right. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Family Friendly Worship

At Golden Grove, we love everybody to be involved in worship.

Please encourage children and visitors to join in the singing and prayers, and to stand and sit at appropriate times when they are able. This is best done by leading by example!

For our 'little ones' - Quiet bags & busy books are available for worship time from the children's area inside the church.

The "Kids at Heart" team run a QUIET craft table during the sermon. That way, the children have some time with their parents during the morning services, and also a little bit of time to be creative, to wriggle around and to learn about our God and what He means to us through artistic activities, with their friends. All children are welcome to join in this time. It is not appropriate for unattended children to play in the foyer at any time during the service. Please ask an usher if you require assistance, or speak to a "Ministry Leader" if you would like to help young families during worship times.

Thank you for worshipping with us!

Pastor's Column

Have you thought: "I wonder where that road is going"- A SIDE TRACK!

Do you take side tracks just for the adventure of it? I need to warn you sometimes side tracks can be quite dangerous and often side tracks lead to dead ends, as we shall find out today in our walk through the book of Genesis.

We'll come across some more people Cain and Abel who were affected by their parent's fall and took a side track-well at least Cain did. Maybe after the fall he couldn't see straight. That's what sin does. It takes our eyes off God.

We'll see how dangerous that track was, the warnings he received and how it actually did turn out to be a dead end.

We'll apply this story to our own lives and see what God is willing to do for us.

Today we are celebrating "Disability Sunday". Bev Stevenson from Lutheran Disability Services and Adrian will be speaking during the service.

At Salt Factory this evening James Norrey will give his view on "Pain".

Next Sunday, we continue our walk through Genesis, with the story of God saving Noah from the flood.

(Genesis 6-9) I believe it shows us three important aspects of God's character. He is for the individual. He uses his own means. He is by nature a saviour God. Why not read up on those chapters in Genesis and see how it speaks to you.

Don't forget the Daily Bible Readings (back page of this Bulletin).

Dates to remember: 31/8/13-The Gathering.

14,15/9/13 -The Craft and Quilt Exhibition

Also keep in mind our church/school Quiz Night on 2nd November. Write the date in your diary. We plan to organize the event through our Fellowship Groups.

Pastor Leon

Suz Brooks testimonial - at the Spiritual Gift of healing - Open Forum (following Salt factory Service TONIGHT)

Healing is one of the spiritual gifts listed in 1 Corinthians 12. Paul Napier who runs a healing ministry and is a member of our church, has a casual open discussion on healing and how to have effective faith (strengthen the Faith Muscle). Please feel free to stay and listen or join in on the discussion as there will be an opportunity for prayer afterwards for any needs that you (or your loved ones) have and that you want effective prayer for. I'm sure you will be intrigued with what Suz has to say.

Youth News!

He gave Himself as an offering for sin so that He'd see life come from it – life, life and more life.

Isaiah 53:10b

School's out and youth's on once more! We'll be having our next event Set The World On Fire on Friday, August 9 for Revival.

The night will be based at Ivan's house, so please either meet there at 7:00pm (directions will be posted on Facebook or can be requested via email) or at the church at 6:30pm for a ride. We'll be departing at 6:45pm on the dot. The night will be a lovely Bonfire, with games, marshmallows and our second session of our study (the DVD works!) So come along! A great chance to chill after a longggg week. $4, $1 cans, Childsafe forms needed ☺

Last week for Revival, we had a solid event which had 11 attendees. We made fantastic pizzas with a large variety of toppings (forgot Pineapple though, my bad) and then talked about the hyper-reality of the world in our study (with the DVD not quite playing properly). Please pray for our ministries, as we want to see more youth grow in their faith and learn more about life! ☺

The Bible's Big Story Our Story

For many Christians, the Old Testament (OT) remains a closed book. We may know some stories: David and Goliath, Jonah and the whale, or Moses leading the Israelites out of Egypt. But without a framework to hang these stories on, we miss the unfolding drama of God's action in history... as well as our place in God's story. The OT is the Scriptures that Jesus and his apostles used. If we ignore the OT, we ignore the very source of the things Jesus talks about. In this course, you'll get an overview to help you make more sense of the OT – as well as Jesus.
