E100 Bible reading challenge

Week 9— The Psalms & Proverbs

Overview

The writers of the Psalms describe every form of human emotion from the depths of despair to the heights of delight and joy. The book of Psalms teaches us a great deal about what an authentic relationship with God looks like. Although there are times when the writers bare their hearts before God in anguish and pain, there is also the constant theme of thanksgiving and praise as they learn that God can be relied on in times of trouble.

The book of Proverbs is full of wisdom and practical advice on how to lead a life that pleases God and avoid the pitfalls that we can so easily fall into.

Family Friendly Worship

At Golden Grove, we love everybody to be involved in worship.

Please encourage children and visitors to join in the singing and prayers, and to stand and sit at appropriate times when they are able. This is best done by leading by example!

For our 'little ones' - Quiet bags & busy books are available for worship time from the children's area inside the church.

The "Kids at Heart" team run a QUIET craft table during the sermon. That way, the children have some time with their parents during the morning services, and also a little bit of time to be creative, to wriggle around and to learn about our God and what He means to us through artistic activities, with their friends. All children are welcome to join in this time. It is not appropriate for unattended children to play in the foyer at any time during the service. Please ask an usher if you require assistance, or speak to a "Ministry Leader" if you would like to help young families during worship times.

Thank you for worshipping with us!

Pastor's Column

Wasn't the baptism last week wonderful? I don't think I have ever baptised 4 people in one service before. As you probably could tell I was touched when Matthew (Gemma, Ameer and Thomas Mann's father) was baptised. That baptism was most radical for me, too. It was one of the few times I could demonstrate pure grace. Matthew did nothing towards God's acceptance of him (no course of instruction in preparation for baptism. I will add though, that Matt was baptised with the understanding that he would study the inquirer's book "God for Us"- which I pray I may take him through when he is ready.) There was another baptism which I would put in the same category -back in Strathbyn: seventy five year old Max – who died within of a week of me baptising him- but that was most exceptional and other than the pure grace of that occasion too, there aren't too many other similarities.

Of course our challenge, as it is with every family who joins our congregation, (remember Diane, Matt's wife and the children's mother joined our congregation last Sunday too) is to connect with them- to encourage them, join with them and support them. As I said in my welcome to the Mann family into the congregation, I would expect them to also be welcomed into our Fellowship Groups. (I think it would be healthy to see Fellowship Groups "fighting over them").

Thank you too Diane and family, on behalf of the congregation, for the sumptuous morning tea you provided for us last week.

Welcome back from Asaroka the recent team that spent a week over there in PNG with the schools in which we are in partnership. I have heard it was a most beneficial trip in deepening our partnership together and installing the telephone system.

Seven nurses from Goroka are planning to visit us at the end of July (for a Lutheran Nurses course) and ten teachers from the Schools in Asaroka in September. We look forward to this "return visit".)

We are beginning Week 9 of the E 100 Challenge this week with the reading plan on Psalms and Proverbs. I am preaching this morning on the theme which I reckon unifies these passages: "Words of Love", in particular Psalm 23, 51 and 103 and selective parts of the Book of Proverbs. I hope that this is not just a study of these books but rather that I can help you to feel some of the love that God has for us as presented through these Words.

Over the last few weeks I have been inquiring about your opinion on just continuing the E100 Challenge into the New Testament (without having that 2 month break). It seems as though you would be quite in favour of continuing the Challenge through July, August and into September. So, next week the E100 Challenge is based on "The Prophets" and the week following week we start the New Testament with "The Living Word". The readings will continue to be on the back of the Weekly Bulletin.

I shall be away over the next 2 weeks (next week due to our District Synod in Alice Springs and the week following I am taking TOIL: days owing that I have accrued over the last year or so). Pastor Len will be leading the service next Sunday morning and Matt Bishop will be leading the service the week afterwards. (In this next section of the E 100 Challenge the guest preacher/speaker may not necessarily be basing his address of the E100 Challenge readings).
