E100 Bible reading challenge

NEW TESTAMENT

Week 19— The Apostles' Teaching

Overview

This week we'll focus on just one of the topics covered in the readings—the importance of love and its outworking and expression in our daily lives. As we do so, we will read and consider what the Holy Spirit inspired four different apostles (James, John, Paul and Peter) to write on this key topic. Each apostle writes in his own style and uses different expressions, yet shares an awareness of the importance of love. They strongly urge their readers in each situation to grow in their ability to express love.

Family Friendly Worship

At Golden Grove, we love everybody to be involved in worship.

Please encourage children and visitors to join in the singing and prayers, and to stand and sit at appropriate times when they are able. This is best done by leading by example!

For our 'little ones' - Quiet bags & busy books are available for worship time from the children's area inside the church.

The "Kids at Heart" team run a QUIET craft table during the sermon. That way, the children have some time with their parents during the morning services, and also a little bit of time to be creative, to wriggle around and to learn about our God and what He means to us through artistic activities, with their friends. All children are welcome to join in this time. It is not appropriate for unattended children to play in the foyer at any time during the service. Please ask an usher if you require assistance, or speak to a "Ministry Leader" if you would like to help young families during worship times.

Thank you for worshipping with us!

Pastor's Column

Do you ever feel hard pressed, perplexed, persecuted, struck down? Maybe you do at the moment. That's all part of being a "jar of clay" (2 Corinthians 4:7, 8) But keep in mind we have a treasure within us. This morning we are going to consider what it means to have "Treasure in jars of clay". We shall be looking at: what is this treasure, how we are like jars of clay and just why does God do this.

Next Sunday our address is based on Revelation 2:8 – one verse from the last book the Bible and the final section of the E 100 Challenge.

Also next Sunday Valdis Andersons, our District's Communications Officer will be presenting "Sharing God's unconditional love in Mission".

Just a few words about what's coming up this week.

The Schools Ministry Combined Church is at the Family Church on Fredrick's Road at Seaton. Why not come along and join our CPSWs Cynthia Harbinson and Margot Mertin and the CPSW from all around the state to celebrate what God is giving us through the public school's ministry program?

I mention we are on the final leg of the (confirmation) Journey. The conferee had their "day camp yesterday and the day of confirmation is planned for 14th October.

The Board and School Council are meeting next week to have fellowship together and to talk through the topic: "In what ways should the School and the Board be independent and in what ways should we work jointly?"

You are always welcome to join the school community at our Friday morning service (during school terms and you are always welcome to come along to our GGAF (fishing events).

YOUTH NEWS!

Bakery (Years 9 and up) is on this Friday (September 14) from 6pm until 10pm. We will be having a delightful sit-down dinner starting at 7pm sharp (you don't need to dress up, unless you want to!) and delving into the area of forgiveness in our discussion. Plenty of exhilarating board games will be made available to play after the formalities (Monopoly Deal anyone?). Feel free to bring along anything you want to do also (from Nerf guns to dolls and anything in between). If you could reply to the Facebook event (join our Bakery group on Facebook if you're not already a member!) so that we can figure out numbers, that would be awesome!

Looking forward to a great night! We do require Childsafe forms from any under 18s, available from our website (youth.ggjf.org.au) or on the night.

Our last event (August 31) was an incredible night of fun, as we transformed the Worship Centre into a skirmish. 17 youth came along for the battle, with lights going off everywhere and the smoke machine working overtime. We ask that the congregation prays that this ministry continues to reach the youth where they're at and helps them build up their relationship with Christ so that they fully trust in his will.

For more information on anything, please email Jason on jason@ggjf.org.au or check out our website.

MAINLY MUSIC NEWS— G'day

Father's Day ... somewhere in regional Australia ... this group celebrated. This is worth making a hot drink before you starting reading because it's totally inspirational. This will remind you that God is incredibly great. This is just ONE group attempting to connect with many families.

One mum and her two children have been back every week since they were considering a huge decision in their lives. On Saturday we held a 'Dad Friendly Saturday session'. The mum came with children and grandparents. The grandma was saying how important the group seems to the mum. Another side of the story is that the church had been looking for ways to try and build connections with the mainly music families. Two team members have really connected with this family - building those connections and feeling like they, on behalf of the church, have something to offer them - hope and love.

Another mum's second baby was due last week. The day before, a close family member died. The mum was able to attend the funeral and deal with all the family emotions. She came on to the Father's Day event with her husband. The baby hasn't yet come but emotionally, she now feels ready to meet her new baby. We'd all written a card for her and had a chat.

At the Father's Day event, I stopped the session and everyone got out their camera because a little child was taking his first ever steps! The whole group stopped – we were able to share in a really brilliant moment. The mum and dad were both nearly crying!

Ten families (most with both parents and grandparents) came for the Father's Day event. The church had been thinking of ways to connect so the minister came too and was blown away with the day. We had paper plane flying competitions with huge amounts of laughter and lots of conversations. We can build the links between mainly music and the church - it is possible and we have begun!

The older grandmothers of the church have invited a few of the families to join with them to take afternoon tea to the local retirement village and hospital. I'm really looking forward to hear how it goes. I can't go but I don't need too - the church is taking the lead and others from the team are going - the mainly music is now a church mechanism not just my vision - excellent.

Don't you LOVE this! Many people ... many connections ... much focus on the connection between church and community. Delightful.

PRAYER TOPIC

Pray for courage to the mainly music team in your church to focus on the connection of community.

Proposed visit to GGLF/GGLPS of teaching staff from Asaroka Lutheran Secondary School

Can you help with billeting??

We have received news from Asaroka that 5-6 staff members are planning to visit with us later this month. Due to airline changes to flights their proposed stay here will be between 23rd Sept—7th October. We would like to encourage folk to consider billeting our PNG friends, even if you can only do it for some of this time and not all. It is a wonderful opportunity for sharing and learning. If this is something you might like to do please contact Daryl Trigg, Daniel Dutschke or Judith Whaites.

CALLING ALL ACTORS AND MUSICIANS

175 STORIES

where history comes to life!

As part of our 175th anniversary celebrations next year, we're compiling a collection of 175 stories that will together reflect the history of Lutherans in Australia, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea and South-East Asia. These stories will be about ordinary Lutheran men and women who exemplified service or who figured in significant events in our Lutheran narrative. The stories, which will be about people now deceased, will tell not only what they did but also something of their personality and faith. Lay people will feature prominently in the collection. We realise that not everyone can write confidently, so suggestions and ideas for stories are also invited. Examples of stories are available upon request. Please send stories (around 500 words), with a photo if possible, and suggestions for stories to Dr John Koch: John.Koch@lca.org.au or 34 Gallery Road, Highbury SA 5089. Also include the author's name and contact details.
