WELCOME to all worshipping with us today

Greetings to any visitors here with us. We are pleased to have you join us and we trust you have felt welcomed and pray the Holy Spirit may enlighten and empower us with the message shared with us today.

Tea & coffee is available in the Fellowship Centre following morning service and at 5.45 pm a light tea is available prior to the 6.30 pm service. Please feel welcome to join us.

TWO MINUTES

How much is our salvation worth?

But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount." (Luke 19:8)

This expression of restitution in today's Gospel reading (which I will be preaching on this morning) is in response to the crowd's muttering and is far in excess of what the Law requires. It's Zacchaeus giving expression to his salvation. (Notice Jesus' reaction to it in the following verse).

Last night at the Steve Grace Concert people came forward for prayer and for some of those it was, like Zacchaeus, an expression of their salvation. Some may cynically decry such "altar calls" as emotionalism.

However, we need to express our salvation and one way of doing this is giving up an old life style and taking on a new, as Zacchaeus was doing. I am sure that his possessions and money were not as important to him any more now that Jesus had given him his fellowship. I would go as far as to say that that with Paul (in Philippians 3:8) he "considered them garbage" compared to what Jesus had to offer.

So how much is your salvation worth? What are you willing to give up- which may get in the way of having a closer relationship with Jesus/ is not as important any more/ as an expression of your gratitude for what Jesus has done for you? Or don't you know how much your salvation is worth?

Prayer: Thank you so much for my salvation. May I appreciate my salvation more deeply through our worship today. Lord, show me what I should be giving and ...giving up as a response to my salvation and please give me the courage to express my salvation appropriately. Amen.

Family Friendly Worship

At Golden Grove, we love everybody to be involved in worship.

Please encourage children and visitors to join in the singing and prayers, and to stand and sit at appropriate times when they are able. This is best done by leading by example!

For our 'little ones' - Quiet bags & busy books are available for worship time from the children's area inside the church.

The "Kids at Heart" team run a QUIET craft table during the sermon. That way, the children have some time with their parents during the morning services, and also a little bit of time to be creative, to wriggle around and to learn about our God and what He means to us through artistic activities, with their friends. All children are welcome to join in this time. It is not appropriate for unattended children to play in the foyer at any time during the service. Please ask an usher if you require assistance, or speak to a "Ministry Leader" if you would like to help young families during worship times.

Thank you for worshipping with us!

Pastor's Column

Welcome to the Cameron Zimmermann and his family, sponsors and friends joining us today for Cameron's baptism. What a special day!

Today we are hearing Jesus' invitation which he gives to anyone who feels that they are "up a tree". The invitation: Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today" is found in Luke 19:5 and is part of our Gospel reading today. Think about it: Just how are we like this chief tax collector? What is Jesus inviting us to do? What would it mean for our lives?

This morning also Lolli Molde who has offered to lead our Mainly Music Ministry has joined us at our morning worship to present the children's address and promote the Mainly Music program. She will be answering the question: How can I help?

Wasn't the Steve Grace Concert last night so very special? Thank you so much to Jeff Wegener and the team for organizing such a wonderful evening here at GGLF. There is a follow up for anyone who came forward at the end of the Concert. This will be held next Wednesday evening here in the Worship Centre.

You should have received your voting forms for the local council elections – they are sent out by mail. Please remember to vote ... and to send your ballot in. It is all part of being a good citizen (required of us by God, according to the 4th commandment)

Next Sunday is our Baptism Anniversary Service. Many of those who have been baptized into our congregation over the last 4 years have been personally invited to this service: to remember that they are God's child through baptism, to celebrate what this means, to worship and fellowship with other members of God's family and in a special part of the service next Sunday: to light their baptismal candle, receive a word of encouragement, a blessing as well as a memento of the occasion. You too can be involved in this if you are baptized. (Spare baptism candles will be available next Sunday morning for this purpose). We are planning a special morning tea too. Would you be able to support this with a plate of morning tea to share after the service?

Why are we putting so much emphasis on our Vision: Care, Communicate and Connect so that people know Christ? We believe this is what our congregation needs to do in order to continue growing into the congregation and as the individuals that God wants us to be. We care, communicate and connect because God has first done this for us. He also gives us the Holy Spirit who by his very nature cares, communicates and connects. What's more, God has given you special opportunities to do this in the context of our congregation. We would like to challenge you to discover what they are and to take up "this mantra" in your life as a member of GGLF.

Rosters for December 2010, Jan & Feb 2011

Yes it's that time again; time to volunteer and make yourself available to assist in the running of this Fellowship. So if you're too timid or simply don't have the time or inclination to join a committee, why not help out in other areas.

We are looking for willing people to assist in any area of weekly worship such as assisting in communion, putting flowers in a vase (no fancy arrangements required), putting together the powerpoint presentations if you're computer minded, welcoming and ushering if you have a smiling face, leading in prayers, helping to keep the place clean and a whole lot more. In some areas we are even desperate for more to join in to avoid having no one at all available to roster on

To find out where you can help just check out the current rosters and roster lists in the foyer and add your name. It would be great to see the lists of names get longer and not shorter. More names means we get to do it less often.

For those wonderful people already on the list, please let me know if there are any dates you wish to avoid this time by sending me an email or putting a note in my pigeon hole.

Thanks to you all for volunteering.

Blessings to you all
